

"Isn't it odd - we
can only see our outsides
but nearly everything
happens on the inside"
said the mole.

Do you recognise these characters?

They are one person's idea of what their inner feelings would look like.

Over the past 11 weeks you might have felt some of these feelings. You might be feeling some of them today.

You might have felt or be feeling other emotions too.

Task

Today, we are going to try and recognise feelings and emotions we have felt or may currently be experiencing and create a poster advertising Disney's latest film...

Inside Out
The 2020 Edition

Task

Use the template to introduce the main emotion characters in your film.

You can print the template or simply draw one on paper.

These are the emotions that have felt or are currently feeling.

All emotions and feelings are justified and understandable, so choose the ones that are right for you
