

You shout it out, but I can't hear a word you say
I'm talking loud, not saying much
I'm criticized, but all your bullets ricochet
Shoot me down, but I get up

1. What is the definition of 'ricochet'? To rebound or bounce off a surface
2. What do the bullets symbolise? Unkind words or actions
3. What does the singer mean when she says 'all your bullets ricochet'? The unkind words or actions will bounce off her / they won't affect her.
4. How do we know she is not effected by those who are negative and say unkind things? She says, Shoot me down, but I get up.

You shoot me down, but I won't fall
I am titanium
You shoot me down, but I won't fall
I am titanium

5. What is titanium? A hard, tough metal
6. The singer describes herself as 'titanium'. What does this suggest about her character? Strong, tough, unbreakable

Cut me down, but it's you who'll have further to fall
Ghost town and haunted love
Raise your voice, sticks and stones may break my bones
I'm talking loud, not saying much

7. What does the singer mean by the line 'cut me down, but it's you who'll have further to fall'? She is saying they can say what they like but they are the ones who will lose.
8. How is it possible to talk loud but not say much? Saying a lot through your actions and not your words.
9. Summarise the message the singer is trying to give to people. She is saying she is strong and nothing will hurt her.