

You stumble through your days
Got your head hung low
Your skies' a shade of grey
Like a zombie in a maze
You're asleep inside
But you can shake away

1. What verb does Barnum use in the first line? Stumble
2. If your sky is grey, what emotion does this evoke? It is dull, boring and sad.
3. What simile does Barnum use? Like a zombie in a maze.

'Cause you're just a dead man walking
Thinking that's your only option
But you can flip the switch and brighten up your darkest day
Sun is up and the colour's blinding
Take the world and redefine it
Leave behind your narrow mind You'll never be the same

4. What happens when you flip the switch? You brighten up your darkest day
5. What does the word 'redefine' mean? To change or give a new meaning to something
6. What does it mean to have a narrow mind? If you are narrow minded you are a person with a limited outlook who is unwilling to consider alternative ideas, perspectives or thoughts

I see it in your eyes
You believe that lie
That you need to hide your face
Afraid to step outside
So you lock the door
But don't you stay that way
No more living in those shadows
You and me we know how that goes

7. Why have the performers been living in the shadows? Hiding away in shame.
8. What do you think Barnum means to 'come alive'?
