

The invisible clothes

Hold a sentence

1. _____

Check ✓

capital letter W

gaps

question mark ?

2. _____

Check ✓

capital letters W + E

gaps

question mark ?

Build a sentence

Spelling

Red Words

love wear could bought whole

Green Words

crowd invisible terrible comfortable measure

Grammar

Underline the verb in each sentence below.

1. The Emperor of China always wore beautiful silk suits.
2. A tailor came to the palace one day.
3. The Emperor gave the tailor six bags of gold.
4. The tailor spread a length of cloth over a chair.
5. Everyone admired the Emperor's new clothes.
6. The Emperor wept uncontrollably.

Vocabulary

Circle the correct meaning of the words in bold in the sentences below.

1. The tailor said he would buy the most valuable silk thread in the city.
amazing soft expensive
2. There was a grand procession through the town.
run parade wander
3. The father repeated his son's words.
listened picked up said again
4. He had to finish his unbearable walk through the city – as bare as the day he was born!
slow difficult fun

Proofread – spelling

Correct 3 errors.

The Emperor couldn't see the clothes but he pretendid to put them on. He felt veree miserable.

Proofread – grammar

Correct 3 errors.

A intelligent boy whispered something to his father. Then his father repeated it: "The Emperor isn't wearing any clothes!"

Write about choosing a mayor

In your exercise book, write how Vain Vincent and Normal Nancy would respond to the interview questions.

Use the next page to help with your ideas.

Useful words

expensive finest gold important charity kind thoughtful

TOP TIP

Think about how different Vain Vincent is from Normal Nancy.

Interview questions

What do you do at the weekend?

What's the most expensive thing you have bought?

What will you do if you become mayor?

What's the kindest thing you have ever done?

What do you think you are good at?

What do other people say about you?

Vain Vincent

Normal Nancy

Words to keep
