

Use your inference skills to answer these questions. Remember to give reasons for what you think.

I think....because...

Who are the people in the picture?

How might they be related?

Where might they be?

What are the people looking at?

Why do they require binoculars?

What are the people in the background doing?

What time of year is it?