

Following your work in class, you will now begin to prepare to re-write the events in 'The Grand Tour' through the eyes of one of the other children who were there: Charlotte, Julian or Jack Will.

Decide which character you will become.

Inside the body template, write down words that describe the person's character and emotions. Outside the template, note down quotes and actions (use the text to help) that support your views.

