

Use a research method of your choice to find out anything you can about the Shang Dynasty. This template is a suggestion but you can present your findings in any way you choose. This could be in your book or using technology and can include words and pictures. Don't worry if you don't understand all of what you read for the moment, this will be our topic this half term so you will be finding out more.

Now write three questions you would like to find the answer to.
