This week we will be working on writing a book review.
This could be a book review of our class text 'Holes' or another book of your choice.

You are to work on one or two sections of the review each day.

Section 3 – Highlights

In this section you talk about your favourite part of the book

Here is an example:

There were so many amazing parts of the story but my favourite was when Stanley tried to steal Mr Sir's truck. I was cheering Stanley on, hoping he would be able to escape and find his friend. Not knowing if Zero was alive or not added to the excitement. The description of Stanley trying to drive the truck made me laugh and when he drove it into the hole it showed how bad he was at driving!

Think...

What emotions did your favourite part make you feel? Include this in your paragraph.

Now it's your turn!
