LO: To understand what personal and possessive pronouns are.

Today we are going to be looking at two types of pronouns - personal and possessive.

A personal pronoun represents a person, a place or a thing.

A possessive pronoun shows that someone owns something.

Have a look at the powerpoint presentation which continues to explain in more detail.

There are some slides that will ask you to write work in your book.

Task

Now that you have viewed the presentation, I would like you to be a teacher today! Use your toys, teddies, pets, family anything to teach what personal and possessive pronouns are.

You can use this presentation to help you. Make sure you have explained what they both mean and included an example of each one.
